LOCAL MENTION.

Low Rates on the B. & O. The low rates prevailing in New York, as the remait of the battle between the great trunk lines, have been the source of no little discomfort to people in these parts, as no one likes to pay full rates when one city farther east enjoys all the ad-rantage of the biggest kind of a cut. This sort of thing has been most effectually done away with by the action of the Baltimore and Ohio yesterday In making the rates the same from Washington as from New York, to wit: Chicago, $7: Cincinnati, $7: Columbus, $7, and St. Louis, $12. More than this, the Baltimore and Ohlo promptly ordered the out from leading Western cities as well, and tickets are now sold in Chicago to Washington at $5; in Cincinnati, $10, and St. Louis, $12. These are preisely the same rates from the cities named as hose to New York.

THE WASHINGTON MONUMENT.

Work Stopped for Want of Iron-Theory as to Its Deflection from Perpendicular. The work on the Washington Monument has been stopped, owing to the delay in fur-nishing the material for the iron framework which supports the elevator. The Phoenix Iron Comany, of Trenton, which has the contract, has been unable to fill this order, on account of the great pressure of work, the demand for iron this fall beng unusually heavy. They expect, however, to be able to furnish the iron by the lat of October. Captain Davis, the engineer in charge, is of the opinion that the work on the monument will not be delayed, and that by the end of the year they will have laid the whole amount of stone which was intended. The monument has now reached the height of 220 feet, and in order to reach the height intended for this year 120 additional feet must be laid. It now has reached more than haif the intended height by 5 feet. If the full amount is laid that was intended for this year, the year's work will show an addition of 78 feet to the monument. During the month beginning August 2 and ending September 2 there was 20 feet added to the height of the monument. The amount of stone included in these 29 feet was 23,000 cubic feet, and it was the Langiert Amount even the contract of the monument.

monument has settled have been kept up, but during the past month, in spite of the large quantity of stone added, no change was observed. For some time past a slight settling was observable, but this has gradually diminished, and during the previous month the settling was not more than the thickness of a sheet of paper. It is believed that the foundation of the monument has reached a point where no further change will take piace, although the weight of the meass will be increased. There is a theory that the sun causes a slight deflection in such structures. The side turned toward the sun, being heated, contracts and has a tendency to move it in the opposite direction. Captain bavis says that this theory has not been demonstrated as yet and no such deflect direction. Captain Davis says that this theory has not been demonstrated as yet and no such deflection has been observed. He thinks by suspending a plummet inside of the monument when it is finished any such deflection could be noted. If any occurred it would be very slight; but the monument, when finished, will afford a means of testing the truth of this theory, as well as of the one that it is affected by the diurnal motion of the earth.

An inventory of the personal property left by the late General Robert Patterson was filed Tuesday by George Campbell and Henry H. Ellis. The document comprises ninety-eight pages of legal cap, and gives the value of every article of which the General died possessed. The personal estate is valued at $970,223, of which the largest part consists of securities. To the account is credited $167,513 in stocks, bonds, and other securities, including $46,025 in bank. The furniture at the General's late residence, at Thirteenth and Locust streets, Philadelphia, is valued at $6,782, of which $186 is credited to books, $884 to silverware, and $250 to plants in the conservatory. The wines in the cellar are valued at $1,772. The estimated value of the real estate owned by the General at the time of his death is not given.

The Lynchburg Regatta.

The Potomac and Columbia crews are out on the river every night, working hard for the Lynchburg regatta, which comes off on the 20th instant. Each crew has made one change in the instant. Each crew has made one change in the boat, Wheeler pulling bow in the Potomac boat in place of Berace. The Analostans will not send a crew. The Potomacs tried their new boat last evening for the first time. She is made after the Davis model, having two cockpits about seven feet apart. The crew think that after they get used to ber that they will like her very much. The Columbia crew will start next Saturday night, and will be composed as follows: Wallach, stroke; Kintner, 3; Nuite, 2; W. A. Smith, bow, and W. Williams, substitute.

A Vouthful Band of Thieves Broken Vn. A little boy named Willie Zyprecht was A little boy named Willie Zyprecht was arraigned in the Police Court yesterday charged by A. M. Ward, of 414 Eleventh street northwest, with stealing a number of brass spigots and other plumbers supplies. The testimony showed that there was a gang of little scamps, who had been carrying on a systematic plan of petty thieving, but as it was difficult to ascertain who was really the guilty one in the transaction at Mr. Ward's the Court decided to release Zyprecht on personal bonds, and admonisted his companions, who were witnesses against him, not to repeat the offense under penalty of being sent to jail or the reform school.

The work of laying the foundation of The work of laying the foundation of the new Union Bethel Church, on M street, between Fifteenth and Sixteenth was commenced yesterday by the bricklayer, Mr. Clarkson. Under the general supervision of the pastor, Rev. J. W. Stevenson, formerly of Trenton, N. J., the old church has been demolished, and the new work entered upon. It is intended to build on the plans of Mr. Morsell an edince 80 by 100 feet, which will be a credit to the congregation. Arrangements are being made for laying the corner-stone, with Masonic ceremonics, on the 1st of October.

Major Brock has submitted a communication to the Commissioners, in which he states that the following members of the police force are insane, and none of them will ever be able to perform police duty again: C. M. Skippon, Philip Shoa, and M. W. Ryan. He suggests that measures be taken to relieve the Police Department of the responsibility of carrying men on the rolls who cannot be of any further service.

Coroner Fatterson, in his annual report to the Commissioners, gives the number of cases of death certified to by him as 507, which are classified as follows: Suicides, 11; homicides, 21; accidents and negligence, 107, and diseases, 400. The highest number of deaths in any month was 64, in September, 1850, and the lowest 26, in Angust of the same year. He estimates that $2,500 will be required for his office during the fiscal year 182-2, 5, 18,00 of which are for salaries and 5700 for books, bianks, stationery, coroner's juries, and autopsies.

The Commissioners have returned to Mr. Calderon Carlisle, who complained of the location of the Alderney Bairy, on Third street, above D northwest, a report on the subject by the health officer. He states that he made a personal inspection of the premises complained of, and found them in an exceptionally good sanitary condition: that in his opinion there was nothing to constitute a nuisance injurious to health or which would justify action under the health ordinances.

The monthly report of the Collector of Taxes for August shows that the receip's were $77,49,11.

The annual report of the Superintendent of Police has been campleted, and will shortly be submitted to the Commissioners. Among other recommendations, the report urges an increase of the force and the establishment of a system to provide for supersmusated or disabled policemen. It also protests against the inferior condition of the station-houses, except these in the Third, Fourth, and Eighth Precincts, which were bailt for police purposes, and asks the erection of more suitable quarters.

The leutenants of the various police precincts have received instructions to enforce the law against persons depositing rubbish in the streets, and a failure by an officer to report any violations on his best will subject him to being reported at headquarters.

BAPTIST CONVENTION. Annual Sessions of the First Washingto

Baptist Association. The First Washington Baptist Associa tion, comprising the churches of this District and a portion of Maryland, convened in annual session Tuesday, in the Liberty Baptist Church, cor ner of Eighteenth and E streets. meeting from Leesburg, Va., to Liberty Baptist Church, Washington, D.C."

AT THE SESSION YESTERDAY
the committee on education reported as follows: They recommend "that the churches see to it that every young man licensed or ordained from time to time shall not only have a consistent Christian character, but an education that will qualify him for the work of the ministry; that the institution established by our worthy brother, Rev. R. S. Laws, be commended to the sympathy and support of the brethren. To the several churches of the association we recommend Wayland Seminary, an institution where an education can be acquired which will enable young men to become efficient workers in the churches; that the pastors encourage the young men and women of their congregation to seek such an education as will make them successful workers in the cause of Christ; and, in conclusion, they piedged themselves to the cause of Christian education. President King, of Wayland Seminary, was present, and by request made a lengthy address before the association, ber cause of Christian education. President King, of Wayland Seminary, was present, and by request made a lengthy address before the association, per-taining mostly to the foregoing resolutions, and the following brethren spoke also on the subject: Rev. An Evening With Shakspeare. The residence of J. C. Dulin, esq., No. 2005 High street, Georgetown, was the scene of a very pleasant parlor entertainment last night, the occasion being a complimentary reception to the talented elecutionist, Miss Marguerite Saxton. A programme consisting of the trial scene from the 'Merchant of Venice," the balcony scene from 'Romeo and Juliet," the letter scene from "Mac-beth," and the trial of Queen Cutharine from "Henry VIII." was very acceptably given by Miss Saxton assisted by Miss Florence Sullivan, Mrs. Florence E Leach, Messis. Babbi; Brown, and Dr. Taylor, o Philadelphia. Miss Saxton has earned for herself a good local reputation as a dramatic reader, assuming such parts as Lady Madeha and Queen Cuthurine with superior effect, her voice and physique being especially adapted to these characters. During the evening Mrs. Leach recited "Receiving Sister's Bean" and Miss Florence Sultivan, another well-known reader, read "From Exile." The literary excreises were interspersed with vocal selections by Mr. E. J. Whitpple. Among the guests were Hon. E. M. Marble, Commissioner of Patents; Mr. Thomas, accompanied by his wife and daughters Mr. William Morris, Mr. W. H. Timpson, Mr. Crenshaw, Mrs. Gilfillan, Misses Patroia, Mrs. Van Horn, Miss Kate Dulin, Mrs. William Dobbin, Mrs. Annie Livingstone, of Battimore, Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. Mollie Orme, Colonei Hinton, of the Gazelle, Mr. Simpson Riley, Mr. A. P. Crenshaw, Mr. N. Grim, and T. D. Hawiey. This is the first of a series of evenings with Shakspeare preparatory to the regular meetings of the Round Table Club. Philadelphia. Miss Saxton has earned for herself

MORE SHOOTING CHALLENGES.

Organizations Try Their Hands.

The honorary members of the Union Veteran Corps have issued a challenge to the honorary members of the following military organiza-tions: The Washington Light Infantry, National Rifles, and the Washington Light Guard, of this city, and the Alexandria Light Infantry, to a contest with Springfield rifles, to be shot under the rules of the National Rifle Association, without rest, rules of the National Rifls Association, without rest, distance, two hundred yards—the match to take place October 4 at Marshall Hall, and each organization to be represented by a team of seven men. The contestants are not to be active members of either of said organizations, or to be in the military service of the United States. The Voteran Association will offer as a prize for such a match a trophy, to consist of a mounted bowl, and will besides, present a gold medal to that member of their own team who shall make the best score in the match. The committee appointed by the Veterants to make the necessary arrangements are as follows: John Lyon, J. Frank Miller, and E. J. Dowling.
